AS WE GATHER

Salvation is too serious of a topic for us to take lightly. Mistakenly, we may think this is an issue that only affects us when we are much older or ready to die. However, the gift of salvation and eternal life is part of a Christian’s life right now.

LESSON FOR DISCIPLES

As disciples of Jesus, through the Holy Spirit, we have the gift of recognizing the true gift of salvation. We are not to keep this gift only for ourselves, rather, to share it with a world that needs a Savior.

INVOCATION

Leader: In the name of the Father and of the ☩ Son and of the Holy Spirit.

People: Amen.

CONFESSION AND ABSOLUTION

Leader: The forgiveness of God is critical to having eternal life. God doesn't forgive simply because He could do so. He forgives because of the great sacrifice of Jesus. As the people of God, we are forgiven but we still sin. Confess your sins to God in order to be transformed and protected from the corruption of our sinful nature.

(We take a moment of silence to reflect on our sin and our need for the Savior.)

Leader: Let us then confess our sins to God our Father.

People: Most merciful God, our sinful nature has produced a wide array of sins in thought, words, deeds, false motives, and failures to act. We have doubted You. We have failed to love You and our fellow human beings. We count on the death of Jesus to cover us and the Holy Spirit to change us. Help, us with all of these struggles.

Leader: You have been chosen to receive eternal life. Do not take this gift for granted, but rather rejoice in it. You can live motivated by love and not self-preservation. You can approach death joyfully. The grace of Christ covers you. Your sins are forgiven in the name of the Father and of the † Son and of the Holy Spirit.

People: Amen.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

† WORD †

(readings from the English Standard Version Bible (ESV))

OLD TESTAMENT READING

Genesis 2:18-25

18 Then the Lord God said, "It is not good that the man should be alone; I will make him a helper fit for him." 19 Now out of the ground the Lord God had formed every beast of the field and every bird of the heavens and brought them to the man to see what he would call them. And whatever the man called every living creature, that was its name. 20 The man gave names to all livestock and to the birds of the heavens and to every beast of the field. But for Adam there was not found a helper fit for him. 21 So the Lord God caused a deep sleep to fall upon the man, and while he slept took one of his ribs and closed up its place with flesh. 22 And the rib that the Lord God had taken from the man He made into a woman and brought her to the man. 23 Then the man said,

*"This at last is bone of my bones
and flesh of my flesh;
she shall be called Woman,
because she was taken out of Man."*

24 Therefore a man shall leave his father and his mother and hold fast to his wife, and they shall become one flesh. 25 And the man and his wife were both naked and were not ashamed.

EPISTLE READING

Hebrews 2:1-13

Therefore we must pay much closer attention to what we have heard, lest we drift away from it. ² For since the message declared by angels proved to be reliable, and every transgression or disobedience received a just retribution, ³ how shall we escape if we neglect such a great salvation? It was declared at first by the Lord, and it was attested to us by those who heard, ⁴ while God also bore witness by signs and wonders and various miracles and by gifts of the Holy Spirit distributed according to His will.

⁵ For it was not to angels that God subjected the world to come, of which we are speaking. ⁶ It has been testified somewhere,

*“What is man, that You are mindful of him,
or the son of man, that You care for him?*

⁷ You made him for a little while lower than the angels;

You have crowned him with glory and honor,

⁸ putting everything in subjection under his feet.”

Now in putting everything in subjection to him, he left nothing outside his control. At present, we do not yet see everything in subjection to him. ⁹ But we see Him who for a little while was made lower than the angels, namely Jesus, crowned with glory and honor because of the suffering of death, so that by the grace of God He might taste death for everyone.

¹⁰ For it was fitting that He, for whom and by whom all things exist, in bringing many sons to glory, should make the founder of their salvation perfect through suffering. ¹¹ For He who sanctifies and those who are sanctified all have one source. That is why He is not ashamed to call them brothers, ¹² saying,

*“I will tell of Your name to my brothers;
in the midst of the congregation I will sing Your praise.”*

¹³ And again,

“I will put my trust in Him.”

And again,

“Behold, I and the children God has given Me.”

HOLY GOSPEL

Mark 10:2-16

Reader: The Holy Gospel according to St. Mark, the tenth chapter.

People: Glory to You, O Lord.

² And Pharisees came up and in order to test Him asked, “Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife?” ³ He answered them, “What did Moses command you?” ⁴ They said, “Moses allowed a man to write a certificate of divorce and to send her away.” ⁵ And Jesus said to them, “Because of your hardness of heart he wrote you this commandment. ⁶ But from the beginning of creation, ‘God made them male and female.’ ⁷ ‘Therefore a man shall leave his father and mother and hold fast to his wife, ⁸ and the two shall become one flesh.’ So they are no longer two but one flesh. ⁹ What therefore God has joined together, let not man separate.”

¹⁰ And in the house the disciples asked Him again about this matter. ¹¹ And He said to them, “Whoever divorces his wife and marries another commits adultery against her, ¹² and if she divorces her husband and marries another, she commits adultery.”

¹³ And they were bringing children to Him that He might touch them, and the disciples rebuked them. ¹⁴ But when Jesus saw it, He was indignant and said to them, “Let the children come to Me; do not hinder them, for to such belongs the kingdom of God. ¹⁵ Truly, I say to you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God like a child shall not enter it.” ¹⁶ And He took them in His arms and blessed them, laying His hands on them.

People: Praise to You, O Christ.

Salvation is too serious of a topic for us to take lightly. Mistakenly, we may think this is an issue that only affects us when we are much older or ready to die.

However, the gift of salvation and eternal life is part of a Christian's life right now.

RESPONSE OF FAITH The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth and of all things visible and invisible.

And in one Lord Jesus Christ,

the only-begotten Son of God, begotten of His Father before all worlds,

God of God, Light of Light, very God of very God, begotten, not made, being of one substance with the Father, by whom all things were made;

who for us men and for our salvation came down from heaven and was incarnate by the Holy Spirit of the virgin Mary and was made man;

and was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate. He suffered and was buried.

And the third day He rose again according to the Scriptures and ascended into heaven and sits at the right hand of the Father.

And He will come again with glory to judge both the living and the dead, whose kingdom will have no end.

And I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord and giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son together is worshiped and glorified, who spoke by the prophets.

And I believe in one holy Christian and apostolic Church,

I acknowledge one Baptism for the remission of sins, and I look for the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Even if you are not partaking in this Sacrament, we invite you to come forward to receive a blessing. Please indicate your desire to receive a blessing by crossing your arms across your chest. Children are invited to come forward and receive a baptismal blessing.

Gluten-free wafers are available if your health requires it. Please ask the Pastor for one when communing. For those who prefer not to have alcohol, there is white grape juice in the cups toward the center of the tray.
